

Hunt Bonneau

Partner

214.234.7900

hbonneau@hamiltonwingo.com

Biography:

Hunt Bonneau was born and raised in Dallas, Texas. He attended Abilene Christian University where he majored in Business Administration, lettered as a quarterback on the football team, received All-Conference honors in baseball, and was the team's Defensive Player of the Year.

Education and Experience:

After graduating from college in 1992, Bonneau went to law school at Pepperdine University where he was a mock trial champion and received his Juris Doctorate in 1995.

After law school, Hunt moved back to Texas and immediately began working as a trial lawyer trying 10 cases to a jury in his rookie season. In 1998, he founded The Bonneau Law Firm and has devoted his entire practice to improving the safety of the community and representing victims of catastrophic injuries and wrongful death. In 2017, Hunt brought his 20-plus years of experience to Hamilton Wingo, LLP to continue to serve and fight for clients.

Memberships and Affiliations:

Hunt has been featured in the media by FOX, NBC, USA TODAY, The Dallas Morning News and the Fort Worth Star-Telegram as well as a number of other news outlets across the country. He has served on the Board of the Dallas Trial Lawyers, and Mothers Against Drunk Driving. He is also a member of the Christian Trial Lawyers Association, the Texas Trial Lawyers Association, and the Brain Injury Association of Texas. Hunt is licensed to practice in all Texas state courts as well as a number of federal courts in Texas.

Hunt and his three children live in Farmers Branch, Texas and attend The Branch Church in Farmers Branch.